This week's TOP SCENE

TALES TARDIS

Tim Burden's
fave scene!

From: The Doctor's Daughter Wow factor: 5/5

1

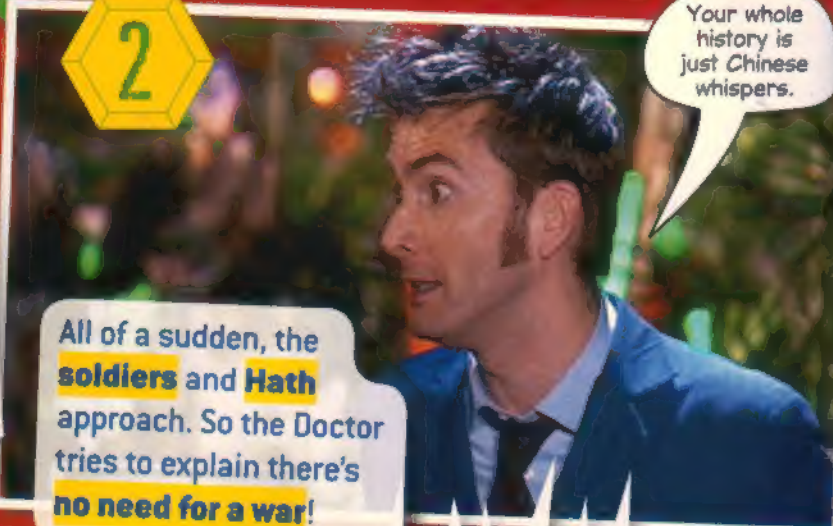

It's beautiful!

The gang are back together, and have found the Source! The Doctor explains it's a terraforming device that makes planets habitable.

2

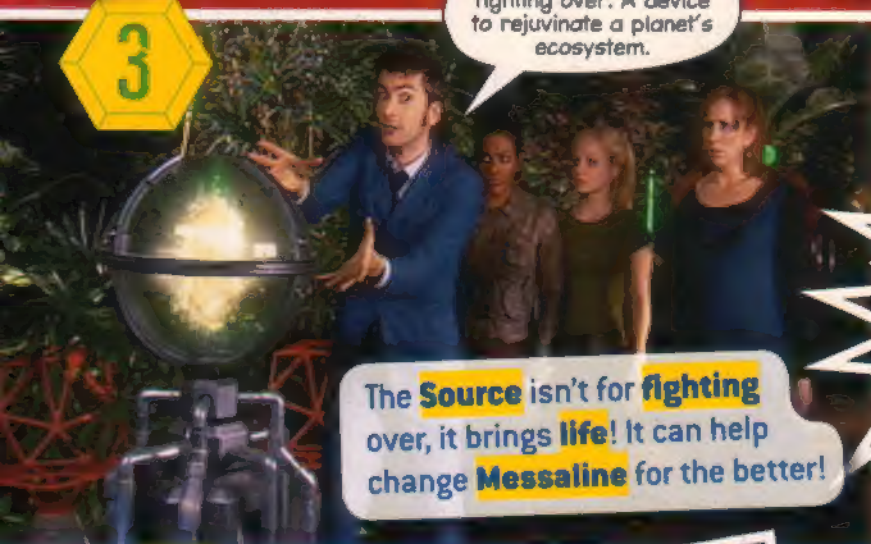

Your whole history is just Chinese whispers.

All of a sudden, the soldiers and Hath approach. So the Doctor tries to explain there's no need for a war!

3

This is what you're fighting over. A device to rejuvenate a planet's ecosystem.

The Source isn't for fighting over, it brings life! It can help change Messaline for the better!

4

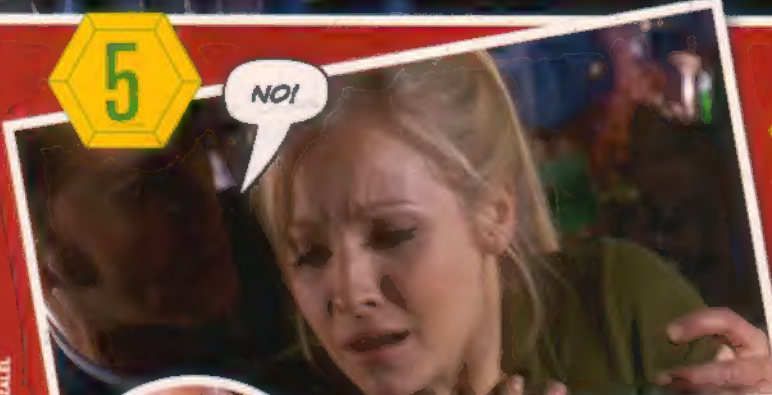

I'm the Doctor and I declare this war is over!

SMASH!

Even though he's surrounded by guns, the Doctor bravely smashes the Source and ends the war! Will there be peace at last?

5

NO!

General Cobb isn't ready for the war to end and points his gun at the Doctor. But Jenny leaps in front, taking the shot meant for her dad.

6

Jenny, be strong now. You need to hold on, you hear me?

Jenny's been badly hurt. There's nothing the Doctor can do for his daughter. It's too late.

BANG!

7

Two hearts - she's like me. If we wait...

The Doctor is desperate for Jenny to regenerate, but she doesn't. She's gone.

There's no regeneration. She's like you, but not enough.

8

I never would. Have you got that? I never would!

The Doctor is devastated. He pulls a gun on Cobb, but of course doesn't shoot.

9

Instead he uses this as a lesson to the rest of them. Violence and bloodshed never solve anything.

Make the foundation of this society a man who never would!

10

Time to go home.

Yeh, home.

This has been a long and painful trip for the Doctor. It's time to leave Messaline and take Martha home.

11

But back on Messaline, something very strange occurs... what's happening to Jenny?

Hello boys!

12

She's alive! Cline and a Hath are watching, but they can't believe their eyes! Looks like Jenny is more like her dad than we thought!

EXTRA

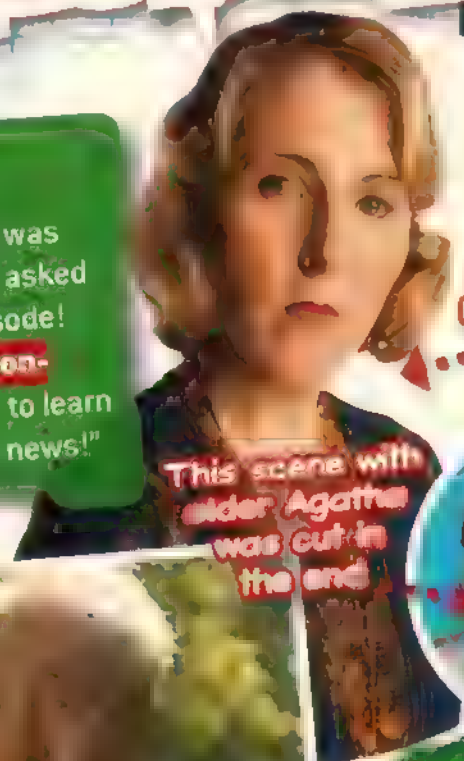

DOCTOR • WH

BZZZZZ!

Who's the daddy?

David Tennant's dad, Sandy, was visiting his son when he was asked to play a footman in this episode! Sandy was happy to have a non-speaking part: "I didn't have to learn any lines – so that was good news!"

David Tennant's dad was brilliant as a footman!

Agatha as we remember her!

This scene with older Agatha was cut in the end

Ageing Agatha

Originally, writer Gareth Roberts wanted us to meet Agatha Christie as an old woman. This would have changed the story's setting to the 1970s, but the team decided they preferred the sophistication of the 1920s – so they used that lot!

Testing the waters

In an earlier script, after the Vespiform drowned, Reverend Golightly's body was supposed to appear in the lake – great! However, actor Tom Baker was still angry for what relieved this scene was cut. "I just was looking forward to a lake, in winter, at night!" Brrr!

And as Harry Gordon Jago in The Talons of Weng-Chiang

Familiar face

Colonel Hugh Curbishley actor Christopher Benjamin is no stranger to deadly Who capers. He met the Third Doctor and UNIT in Inferno, and the Fourth Doctor in The Talons of Weng-Chiang

SPLOSH!

Reverend Golightly disappeared with the Vespiform

DOCTOR · WHO ADVENTURES

WORMHOLE

PART ONE

Script: TREVOR BAXENDALE
Art: JOHN ROSS
Colours: ALAN CRADDOCK
Letters: PAUL VYSE

Aw, yes! Donna, this is the famous Stellion Gate! It's one of the galaxy's greatest technological achievements!

It's actually a naturally occurring tunnel through space-time called a wormhole, connecting one end of this galaxy to the other...

An amazing feat of 99th century engineering allows the wormhole to be used as a short cut by spacecraft making interstellar journeys...

Distances that once took years to travel at light-speeds can now be crossed in less than an afternoon!

Look! There's an Orion Starleaper just going through!
Wow! Wouldn't you just love to have a go at that!

Oh, I dunno - I've never been one for roller coasters.

This isn't a fairground ride, Donna! It's for real!

What are you so excited about?
It's a flyover

Flyover?

STELLION GATE TOLL
HEAVY CRUISERS ONLY 500000
LIGHT CRUISERS ONLY 350000
SUBLIGHT VESSELS ONLY 200000

You know - short cut. And this place reminds me of a motorway service station.

Which reminds me
- I'm hungry and you promised me dinner, not a spaceshipspotter's convention.

I'm not a spaceship-spotter!

You are so a spaceship-spotter. I saw the way you were drooling over that Orion Leapfrogger, or whatever it was.

Starleaper.
Absolute classic...

That's the trouble
with the TARDIS.
Sometimes you forget that there are other ways to travel.

Why do people always eat junk in these places?
It's like they think because they're not in a real place they don't have to eat real food...

Oh, look out - someone's throwing a wobbler...

Gah! Look where you're going, you Jinian dolt!

So sorry, sir... Beg your pardon... I can assure you it was just a silly mistake...

Just make sure it's your last - before I do.

Oi! Hound of Horror! Pick on someone your own size!

Go easy - that's an Angridox Space Dog. Not exactly renowned for their patience...

And you are...?

I'm the Doctor and this is my friend Donna. Sorry about that, it's Donna's first visit here and she's a bit overexcited...

Speak for yourself...!

Don't apologise. I was just about to congratulate you - not many people have the guts to stand up to an Angridox Ambassador.

Ambassador? He said you were a Space Dog.

A common enough epithet, given the Angridox lineage - but not one that we enjoy. I might as well call you a Space Ape.

Er, point taken - sorry, again. I should know better, Ambassador...?

Volfus.

So what brings you here, Ambassador Volfus?

The Stellion wormhole passes directly through Angridox Space. I am here to help settle a territorial dispute with the owners.

I thought the wormhole's location was more virtual than actual. How can it threaten Angridox interests?

If they own both ends of the wormhole, then they might lay claim to what lies between.

I bring you greetings from the Angrodox Pack Worlds.

This should be interesting! These guys have never got on...

I bet they fight like cats and dogs.

The wormhole crosses Angrodox Space and we object to any attempts by the Fatkat Corporation to take control of it.

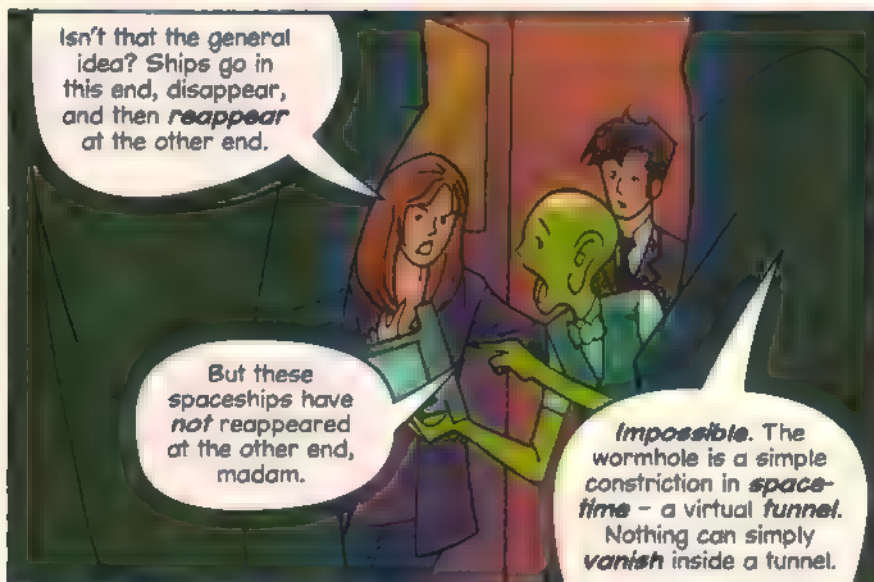

Your objections are noted but unfounded, Volfus. We control the Stellion Gate, not the wormhole itself.

Sirs! There's been an emergency - the Stellion Gate has malfunctioned!

Malfunctioned? In what way?

A number of spacecraft using the gate have disappeared!

Isn't that the general idea? Ships go in this end, disappear, and then reappear at the other end.

But these spaceships have not reappeared at the other end, madam.

Impossible. The wormhole is a simple constriction in space-time - a virtual tunnel. Nothing can simply vanish inside a tunnel.

If this is a Fatkat trick to increase the toll charges...!

Don't be stupid. It's more likely sabotage - as a result of Angrodox interference!

Do you expect me to respond to such a ridiculous accusation?

Only with blatant lies. We have suspected the work of Angrodox agents for some time!

Cut along dotted lines and keep the whole collection!

Olly Rippon

A Because they were terrified, Olly! Remember that there was one Toclafane for every man, woman and child on Earth, so billions of them were whizzing around the world. If anyone had decided to disobey the Master, or try to run and hide, they wouldn't have stood a chance against the deadly globes, with their laser beams and sharp blades. That's how the Master controlled the whole world – through the terror of the Toclafane!

Sinister Sontarans

Q How can I tell if my child has a learning disability?

Charlie Gibbs

A Well, to be honest, the Doctor has never really went anywhere – it's just that the Doctor hasn't come across any for many years. They're always busy fighting their never-ending war with the Rutans. It obsesses them above all else, so they build a new military base in a cloning world and decide to pick on a defenceless planet. They've done this before. The Doctor has met these potato-headed monsters when he was travelling with Sarah Jane. Ruthless and brutal, they love fighting more than anything else.
